

The Youth and women empowerment program is funded by UNDP in Guyana. Volunteer Youth Corps using its Job Bank online database to mobilize unemployed youth over 16 years and single mothers of youth in the program. 150 applicants from the communities of Lodge, South Ruimveldt, Sophia and Tucville will benefit from a number of capacity building initiatives necessary for job placement.

Participants will attend sessions twice weekly focusing on acquiring skills that generate fast income at low financial cost within a short period. Practical training will include: sewing, garment designing and Hydroponics (method of growing vegetation using mineral nutrient water solution, in water without soil).